

Dear Ravi,

I'm very disappointed that I'm unable to join you this year. I believe REEDS is such an important contributor to the improving the lives of rural poor in India. I know that the REEDS Conference will again provide opportunities for the participants to gain further knowledge and inspiration from the speakers and the program. I wish you the very best for the conference this year.
Thinking of you.

Kind Regards,

KAY GANLEY
